Dear Mr. Ashcroft:

I am writing in full support of the recent settlement between Microsoft and the U. S. Department of Justice. The lawsuits have been going on for too long now and there could be no benefit for the public for them to continue.

I think the terms of the settlement are fair and reasonable. They will also serve to alleviate competitors' complaints as Microsoft has agreed to grant computer makers broad new rights to configure Windows' so that non-Microsoft products can be more easily promoted. They have also agreed to disclose for use by competitors interfaces that are internal to Windows operating system products.

I hope your office see what I believe and that is that our economy can afford no further litigation. Please implement the settlement. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Terry Jendersee
